A Letter from "Fergie"

Hi guys! About 2 1/2 years ago I was rescued off the streets of Woodlawn & given the name Fergus. My foster parents call me Fergie except when I am bad then I'm called Ferguson. I'm not sure how old I am but I take naps just like my elderly foster parents do in the afternoon so that may give you a clue as to my age. To be honest, I am spoiled with several walks during the day. I love riding in the car and have the option of three beds to sleep in! All in all, I am a pretty lucky Westie. I'm not sure where my life started out because my hind legs never properly developed as they should and one half of my ear was removed. I suspect I was most likely a stud dog kept in a cage and when they had no use for me, they removed the identification tattoo on my ear and let me go. So Thank You Maryland Westie Rescue for the wonderful and caring service you provide for dogs like me. I contribute to a happy home and I am a happy loving pup thanks to you and your efforts to give Westies a good home. God Bless!

"Spotlight" Westie!

Maryland Westie Rescue features Rocky! Rocky is a delightful 4 year old recovering after years of untreated skin issues. Rocky is house trained, crate trained, leash trained, smart, playful, & loving. Rocky needs quality hypo-allergenic food, regular vet care, & baths a little more frequently than average for the rest of his life. Do you have room in your heart and home for Rocky?
