MAYA

Hi! My name is Maya and I came to Maryland Westie Rescue a couple months ago. I was the neglected victim in a bad divorce. I was never taken to the vet and I lived with painful, untreated dry eyes for so long that I am now pretty much blind. I also had a bad nose infection & ear infections. My whole head felt terrible. But then I came to MWR & the doctors at Greater Annapolis Vet Hospital took great care of me! They shaved me down of all my matted hair & put me on lots of medicines that have me out of pain and finally comfortable. The nice people with MWR said because of my medical conditions & special needs that I can't adopt out, but luckily they have a great program called "long term fosters." That means they pay for my medical care for the rest of my life and I've been placed in a permanent home with a super awesome foster mommy & daddy named Lynda & Glenn. They give me round the clock care & soooooo much love! They even took me on vacation with them when the doctors said it was ok & I had the bestest time ever! I never knew life could be this good & I look forward to every day now. Love, Maya
