Miss Coco's Big Day- By Elise Traub

A Fairy "Tail" of love & happiness for all!

"Wanted to share some recent pictures of our MWR rescue, Miss Coco, who is now around 15 years old and still going strong. She was the star of the show at our wedding in November! She only stayed for cocktail hour before she went home to nap, but we got some pretty pictures of her in her custom floral wreath. One of our signature cocktails featured her. She was also featured in all three toasts and instead of favors, we did a donation in honor of our guests to MD Westie Rescue. We were glad to be able to support a cause that means so much to us!"

DID YOU KNOW?

MWR is one of the few rescues that operates a long term foster/hospice program. Many dogs that come our way cannot be adopted out due to their extreme medical conditions/expenditures or terminal illness. We care for these dogs in specialized long term foster homes for the remainder of their lives where they have care, comfort, love, and peace.
